Year 11 Scholarship Guidelines

(External Applications Only)

Process for applying for Year 11 IB Diploma Academic Scholarship

We welcome your application for a Year 11 IBDP academic scholarship at Central Coast Steiner School.

Overview

Students are expected to submit a letter explaining why they would like to be considered for an academic scholarship. Shortlisted students will be invited for an interview with the Principal and Deputy Principal.

Type of scholarships available

Scholarships provide a discount to Tuition Fees only, generally from 25% to 100%. Other fees, such as the enrollment fee, uniforms, compulsory and optional outdoor education camps and music tuition, are full price.

Scholarship application requirements

Candidates must complete the online application for academic scholarship on the School's website. Candidates will also be required to upload some or all of the following support documentation:

- Letter explaining why they would like to be considered for a scholarship and the value they will add to the school (maximum 500 words)
- Copy of the last two school reports;
- Copies of NAPLAN reports where applicable
- Full reports of any ability assessments e.g. WISC, WIAT, AGAT, WPPSI, if applicable
- List of individual accreditations achievements where applicable (photocopies of certificates).

Please submit these in one PDF document.

Selection criteria

- Completed Year 11 academic scholarship application
- Academic scholarship test results
- Demonstrated academic achievement and potential
- Commitment to Central Coast Steiner School values
- High level of engagement with all curriculum and co-curricular activities
- Commitment to leadership within the school environment

Expectations of scholars

Academic scholars are expected to demonstrate:

- High achievement across academic subjects
- Continual engagement in class work and study habits
- Active participation in all aspects of school activities and school life
- Responsible attitudes and behaviours.

How to apply

Email the application form on page 3 of this document and include the relevant documentation as listed in 'Scholarship Application Requirements' via the scholarship application form on the School's website.
